

Growing Millwork Connections

51st Annual Convention & Tradeshow

October 31st - November 3rd • 2015

Atlanta, Georgia

Spouse
Program

World Millwork Alliance is pleased to present a “Spouse Program” at the upcoming WMA Annual Convention & Tradeshow, October 31- November 4, 2015, in Atlanta, Georgia.

Spouse registration will include the following

Sunday, November 1 (4:00 – 5:00 pm)

- “Women’s Connection”
 - ❖ Ladies, come together and make a connection with other women attending the convention. A representative from the Atlanta Convention & Visitors bureau will join you and provide the highlights for the spouse activities taking place on Monday and Tuesday.
- Icebreakers Welcome Reception (to follow)

Monday, November 2 (11:00 am – 4:00 pm)

- “Swan Coach House Luncheon and Atlanta History Center”
 - ❖ The Atlanta History Center invites you to explore Georgia’s past through award-winning exhibitions; two historic houses including 1860’s Smith Family Farm, and the 1928 Swan House where you will experience the Swan House Restaurant’s charming Southern cuisine as you dine for lunch. Enjoy walking the beautiful grounds on 22 acres of historic gardens and trails.

Tuesday, November 3 (10:00 am – 3:00 pm)

- “Gone with the Wind Museum and Luncheon at Marietta Square”
 - ❖ Historic Marietta Square presents a big city with small town charm with history dating back to 1834. Visiting Marietta Square wouldn’t be complete without a visit to the Gone With the Wind Museum; displaying artifacts related to the Margaret Mitchell novel and Academy Award-winning 1927 film. Included is a luncheon at ever popular restaurant, The Vineyard Café. Afterward browse Marietta at your Leisure strolling the Square with a wide array of unique boutiques, antique and gift shops, and historical sites. It will be a wonderful time of year to take in the autumn colors in Glover Park.
