

Following up another Record Year, SnapDragon Welcomes Jared Abbott, Taylor Ribeiro and Sali Mahoney

Bedford, NH, 5/1/2024 - SnapDragon is thrilled to announce the addition of valuable new team members following another year of record-breaking growth, keeping the company on top of the increasing demands of the building materials industry. Taylor Ribeiro and Sali Mahoney join our esteemed recruiting team, while Jared Abbott steps in as the Operations and Sales Coordinator, bringing a wealth of experience and expertise to fuel our continued success.

Taylor Ribeiro and Sali Mahoney: Drawing on diverse backgrounds and rich experiences, Taylor Ribeiro and Sali Mahoney bring fresh perspectives and unique skills to SnapDragon. Taylor, previously in Cybersecurity Sales, seamlessly transitions into recruiting, showcasing a keen understanding of candidate needs and client relationships. Sali, with over a decade of experience in Financial Services, embodies dedication and a competitive spirit that aligns perfectly with our values.

Jared Abbott: Joining as the Operations and Sales Coordinator, Jared Abbott's six years of experience in the staffing and recruiting industry, coupled with a background in sales and operations within professional ice hockey organizations, make him a standout professional. His commitment to fostering collaboration and delivering top-notch service exemplifies the ethos of SnapDragon.

Meeting Industry Demands:

As the building materials industry experiences exponential growth SnapDragon remains dedicated to staying ahead of the curve. By strategically expanding our talented team, we are poised to not only meet but exceed the demands of a dynamic market landscape. This recruitment drive signifies our proactive approach to serve our clients and candidates with unparalleled excellence, in our efforts towards another record-breaking year.

At SnapDragon, we are excited to welcome Taylor, Sali, and Jared to our growing family. Their passion for connecting with people and driving results aligns seamlessly with our recruitment philosophy, ensuring that we continue to empower talent and foster growth within our organization.
